PRHA's Annual General Meeting set for Dauphin

Dauphin- The Parkland Regional Health Authority (PRHA) is getting set to hold its 2009/2010 Annual General Meeting (AGM) in the 'City of Sunshine.' The AGM will be held Monday, August 30th, at St. Viator's Parish Hall in Dauphin beginning at 7 p.m. Parkland Regional Health Authority CEO Kevin McKnight says the public is encouraged to attend the informational evening.

"We are very excited to be in a position to hold the annual meeting about three months ahead of previous years. In the past, the Annual General Meeting (AGM) has been held in late November, however, that has presented some overlap in terms of the fiscal year we were operating in and what we were basing our report on. Our Board wants to provide information in a timely manner and the August time frame is the earliest opportunity to do so. We will review some of our successes, look at some of our opportunities for improvement, and provide a comprehensive financial overview for the fiscal year (April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010).

The Seventh Annual PRHA Volunteer Health Service Awards are also a part of the evening agenda. This year, there will be a total of six awards handed out. Four awards will go to individuals from the various PRHA districts (east, west, central and north). There is also one award for a Regional group and one youth award.

"The PRHA would like to thank all of the people who took the time to nominate individuals and organizations for the Volunteer Awards this past year. We especially thank all of the nominees for the valuable contributions that they perform every day for the betterment of health within our communities," stated Mary Hudyma, PRHA Board Chairperson.
